Hospital Topics

Index to Vol. 65, 1987

Author

Benson, Herbert. The preoperative use of relaxation response with ambulatory surgery patients. J/A:30.

Bogatay, Lynne M. Financial analysis can facilitate the MRI acquisition decision. N/D:26.

Bohlander, George W. A grievance system without a labor union. M/J:17.

Boissoneau, Robert. The employee-centered health care manager. M/A:40; Organizational design issues in the structure of hospitals. J/F:41; Team care and matrix organization in geriatrics. N/D:10.

Boshard, Nick. A planning and marketing prototype for changing health care organizations. N/D:34.

Celmer, Mark E. Managing effectively through a strike. S/O:14.

Cohn, D'Vera. In clinics, military finds Rx to lower costs, shorten waits. M/J:25.

Costello, Michael M. Selecting and training the hospital-based physician services representative. J/A:18.

Daniels, L. Ann. Getting to the root of managerial problems: Increasing worker productivity. J/F:39.

Darr, Kurt. Nexus: The changed hospital environment. M/J:11; Content of an organizational philosophy. N/D:8; Importance and relevance of the organizational philosophy. J/A:9; Legal and ethical aspects of an organizational philosophy. S/O:10.

Davidhizar, Ruth. How to respond to a nasty memo. M/J:37; Our solution to too many nursing students on a psychiatric unit. J/F:25; Patient medication education groups. J/F:21; The "responsible" client-facilitator relationship. M/A:35; Strategic planning: Implications for nursing practice and education. J/A:11.

Deevy, Edward. Effecting change: The survival and prosperity of a community hospital. N/D:16.

Delman, Bruce S. The library: Catalyst for professional growth in the hospital. J/A:20.

Domar, Alice A. The preoperative use of relaxation response with ambulatory surgery patients. J/A:30.

Dunn, Sandra Kanu. Culture brokers and managing the multicultural hospital. S/O:27.

Engel, Margaret. Hospitals scramble to fill shrinking pool of nurses. M/A:19.

Farabaugh, Nano. How to respond to a nasty memo. M/J:37; Our solution to too many nursing students on a psychiatric unit. J/F:25.

Foster, Robert T. Environmental changes in the health care industry and the U.S. Army medical department. M/A:32.

Gehring, Phyllis. Moving to shared governance. M/J:33.

Giger, Joyce Newman. Strategic planning: Implications for nursing practice and education. J/A:11.

Gilmore, Carol Bankart. Bargaining unit determination in health care facilities: The legal controversy continues. M/A:15.

Gray, Nancy L. Bargaining unit determination in health care facilities: The legal controversy continues. M/A:15.

Grimsrud, Deanna. Staffing methods at magnet hospitals. J/F:12.

Guy, Barbara B. Return on equity—How much profit must a not-for-profit hospital earn? J/F:9.

Harshman, Fred W. Using standard costs as a pricing tool for outpatient surgery. J/A:16.

Henk, Nancy. Case history of an interdisciplinary committee. J/F:15.

Horan, Gary S. Hospital enhances patient relations with focus groups, surveys. J/F:18.

Illich, Stanley J. Environmental changes in the health care industry and the U.S. Army medical department. M/A:32.

Lapriore, Ellen Harding. Measuring patient satisfaction in a community hospital. S/O:22.

Louie, Clifton. An interactive model for master site planning. N/D:19.

Matthews, Linda L. The health fair as a health promotion strategy: Effects on health risk behaviors and the utility of specific health fair activities. J/F:29.

McGibony, John R., M.D., 1903–1986. J/F:45.

McGrail, George R. Evaluating performance for health care facilities. M/J:27.

Minshew, Susie. Reducing hospital lost charges. S/O:12.

Newman, Jacquelyn G. Team care and matrix organization in geriatrics. N/D:10.

Noe, Joel M. The preoperative use of relaxation response with ambulatory surgery patients. J/A:30.

Nystrom, Paul C. Clinical ladders and job enrichment. M/A:22.

Ortiz, Marlaine E. Moving to shared governance. M/J:33.

Palkon, Dennis S. Book review: The challenge of hidden profits: Reducing corporate bureaucracy and waste. M/A:45; The medical device and laboratory product problem reporting program. J/F:35.
Pilarski, Anne. Case history of an interdisciplinary committee. J/F:15.
Plumlee, Ken B. Beyond physician referral: Consumer information and referral systems as a marketing strategy for hospitals. M/A:9.
Pohlod, Ray. Hospital enhances patient relations with focus groups, surveys. J/F:18.
Powel, Mildred J. Patient medication education groups. J/F:21.
Principe, Richard D. Environmental changes in the health care industry and the U.S. Army medical department. M/A:32.

Roedel, Rita S. Clinical ladders and job enrichment. M/A:22.

Sabin, Paul. Hospital cost accounting and the new imperative. S/O:33.
Schroeder, David A. The health fair as a health promotion strategy: Effects on health risk behaviors and the utility of specific health fair activities. J/F:29.
Shouldice, Robert G. Defining new linkages in the HMO industry: The changing market. M/J:12.
Snoke, Albert W. The hospital administrator. J/A:23.
Sovie, Margaret A. Moving to shared governance. M/J:33.
Stamps, Paula L. Measuring patient satisfaction in a community hospital. S/O:22.
Stennett-Brewer, Linda. Organizational stress diagnosis and hospital employee assistance programs. M/A:25.
Stier, Richard D. Future forecast: Customers, capital, segments, strategies. J/A:36.
Strange, Joe E. Defining new linkages in the HMO industry: The changing market: M/J:12.

Trocchio, Julie. Long term care: Conflicts and controversies. M/J:22.

Walden, Mark L. Using standard costs as a pricing tool for outpatient surgery. J/A:16.
Weiner, Karen. Hospital's changing menus, improving food. S/O:30.
Werch, Chudley E. The health fair as a health promotion strategy: Effects on health risk behaviors and the utility of specific health fair activities. J/F:29.
White, Harold C. A grievance system without a labor union. M/J:17.
Wong, Susan A. Environmental changes in the health care industry and the U.S. Army medical depart ment. M/A:30.

Title

Book review: The challenge of hidden profits: reducing corporate bureaucracy and waste. Dennis S. Palkon. M/A:45.
Bargaining unit determination in health care facilities: The legal controversy continues. Carol Bankart Gilmore and Nancy L. Gray. M/A:15.
Beyond physician referral: Consumer information and referral systems as a marketing strategy for hospitals. Ken B. Plumlee. M/A:9.

Case history of an interdisciplinary committee. Anne Pilarski and Nancy Henk. J/F:15.
Clinical ladders and job enrichment. Rita S. Roedel and Paul C. Nystrom. M/A:22.
In clinics, military finds Rx to lower costs, shorten waits. D'Vera Cohn. M/J:25.
Culture brokers and managing the multicultural hospital. Sandra Kanu Dunn. S/O:27.

Defining new linkages in the HMO industry: The changing market. Joe E. Strange and Robert G. Shouldice. M/J:12.

Effecting change: The survival and prosperity of a community hospital. Edward Deevy. N/D:16.
The employee-centered health care manager. Robert Boissoneau. M/A:40.
Environmental changes in the health care industry and the U.S. Army medical department. Richard D. Principe, Robert T. Foster, Stanley J. Illich, and Susan A. Wong. M/A:32.
Evaluating performance for health care facilities. George R. McGrail. M/J:27.

Financial analysis can facilitate the MRI acquisition decision. Lynne M. Bogatay. N/D:26.
Future forecast: Customers, capital, segments, strategies. Richard D. Stier. J/A:36.
Getting to the root of managerial problems: Increasing worker productivity. L. Ann Daniels. J/F:39.
A grievance system without a labor union. George W. Bohlander and Harold C. White. M/J:17.

The health fair as a health promotion strategy: Effects on health risk behaviors and the utility of specific health fair activities. Chudley E. Werch, David A. Schroeder, and Linda L. Matthews. J/F:29.
The hospital administrator. Albert W. Snoke. J/A:23.
Hospital cost accounting and the new imperative. Paul Sabin. S/O:33.
Hospital enhances patient relations with focus groups, surveys. Gary S. Horan and Ray Pohlod. J/F:18.
Hospital's changing menus, improving food. Karen Weiner. S/O:30.
Hospitals scramble to fill shrinking pool of nurses. Margaret Engel. M/A:19.
How to respond to a nasty memo. Nano Farabaugh and Ruth Davidhizar. M/J:37.

An interactive model for master site planning. Clifton Louie. N/D:19.

The library: Catalyst for professional growth in the hospital. Bruce S. Delman. J/A:20.
Long term care: Conflicts and controversies. Julie Trocchio. M/J:22.

Managing effectively through a strike. Mark E. Celmer. S/O:14.
Measuring patient satisfaction in a community hospital. Paula L. Stamps and Ellen Harding Lapriore. S/O:22.
The medical device and laboratory product problem reporting program. Dennis S. Palkon. J/F:35.
Moving to shared governance. Marlaine E. Ortiz, Phyllis Gehring, and Margaret D. Sovie. M/J:33.

Nexus: The changed hospital environment. M/J:11; Content of an organizational philosophy. N/D:8; Importance and relevance of the organizational philosophy. J/A:9; Legal and ethical aspects of an organizational philosophy. Kurt Darr. S/O:10.

Organizational design issues in the structure of hospitals. Robert Boissoneau. J/F:41.
Organizational stress diagnosis and hospital employee assistance programs. Linda Stennett-Brewer. M/A:25.
Our solution to too many nursing students on a psychiatric unit. Nano

Farabaugh and Ruth Davidhizar. J/F:25.

Patient medication education groups. Ruth Davidhizar and Mildred J. Powel. J/F:21.

A planning and marketing prototype for changing health care organizations. Nick Boshard. N/D:34.

The preoperative use of relaxation response with ambulatory surgery patients. Alice D. Domar, Joel M. Noe, and Herbert Benson. J/A:30.

Reducing hospital lost charges. Susie Minshew. S/O:12.

The "responsible" client-facilitator relationship. Ruth Davidhizar. M/A:35.

Return on equity—How much profit must a not-for-profit hospital earn? Barbara B. Guy. J/F:9.

Selecting and training the hospital-based physician services representative. Michael M. Costello. J/A:18.

Staffing methods at magnet hospitals. Deanna Grimsrud. J/F:12.

Strategic planning: Implications for nursing practice and education. Joyce Newman Giger and Ruth Davidhizar. J/A:11.

Team care and matrix organization in geriatrics. Jacquelyn G. Newman and Robert Boissoneau. N/D:10.

Using standard costs as a pricing tool for outpatient surgery. Fred W. Harshman and Mark L. Walden. J/A:16.